

MILAN
GALLERIA 10 A.M. ART
FROM 10 JANUARY TO 11 APRIL 2015
“MARINA APOLLONIO. RETROSPECTIVE EXHIBITION” curated by Joe Houston

10 A.M. ART opens the new year with a retrospective exhibition dedicated to Marina Apollonio, a figure of international importance, among the most representative ones of the Italian optical-kinetic art. The works in the exhibition reconstruct the artistic path of Marina Apollonio, collecting several cycles of significant works she has developed since 1963; from the early works on paper to those in aluminium, from the Gradazioni on canvas to the Dinamiche Circolari, from the Rilievi a Diffusione Cromatica to the recent Dinamiche Ellittiche. The multifaceted research of this artist summarizes a complex study in a simple way, in a balance between art and science, making the viewer protagonist of a space-time vision she has meticulously planned. The strong mark and the balance between opposites, especially between white and black, determine an iconicity that delineates the hallmark of her works and their absolute recognizability. The exhibition is accompanied by a bilingual monographic volume, published by 10 A.M. ART, which, in addition to the works in the exhibition, contains an important selection of the artist's works and two unpublished texts by Joe Houston and Ugo Savardi.
