GALLERIA 10 A.M. ART
FROM 4 JUNE TO 2 JULY 2016
“1010. SERENDIPITY”

10 A.M. ART, in partnership with Question Mark, is inaugurating the first Italian show by 1010 as part of a wider cultural project which will involve the whole of the gallery building in 31 Via Barrili, Milan. An internationally known artist, famous for his instantly recognisable style, 1010 breaks down the surface with his use of perspective to create holes that, like portals, activate the spectators' imagination to transport them mentally to a parallel reality. The works by 1010, extraordinary openings into space-time, are awesome illusory chasms obtained by alternating light and shade and by carefully studied juxtapositions of colour. The dialogue between the huge mural outside and the more intimate size of the works exhibited inside, involves the viewers and forces them to instinctively join together the events in a creative manner, so parking off a significant link between the various portals, and leaving space for more conceptual and introspective thoughts. On show is a selection of works from the artist's most significant series, among which "Portal", "Limbus", "Void", "Fluss" and "Abyss", specifically conceived and created for the Milan solo show. The exhibition is accompanied by a bilingual catalogue published by 10 A.M. ART, and planned together with the curators Question Mark and Alice Cosmai.
