Lucia Di Luciano
(Siracusa | Syracuse, 1933)

Lucia Di Luciano è nata a Siracusa nel 1933. Arrivata a Roma, frequenta l'Accademia di Belle Arti, dove incontra Giovanni Pizzo. I due si sposano nel 1959. Nel 1963, insieme con Francesco Guerrieri e Lia Drei, fondano il Gruppo 63, che, nell'ambito delle ricerche cinetico-programmate, si dà un'impronta fortemente razionalistica. Questo sodalizio a quattro ha breve durata, a causa di divergenze programmatiche. Già nel 1964 Lucia Di Luciano e Giovanni Pizzo danno vita all'Operativo R, coinvolgendo nella nuova compagine Carlo Carchietti, Franco Di Vito e Mario Rulli. I lavori prodotti in quel periodo prendono le mosse dall'analisi di processi visivi di matrice gestaltica. Nelle opere di Lucia Di Luciano si determina spesso un effetto di sovrapposizione di griglie in bianco e nero, che conferisce all'immagine un'evidente pluridimensionalità. C'è poi un ritorno al colore, con la graduale introduzione dei toni primari. Non è un tradimento degli assunti originari, ma un approfondimento di un'indagine sulla percezione ottica, che Di Luciano pone in pratica, per esempio, nella serie dei "Gradienti", opere ricche di verve immaginativa unita al rigore scientifico. Nelle recenti serie "Minimal" e "Senza titolo", Di Luciano libera il segno dalla griglia rigorosa degli anni Sessanta, per lasciare spazio a tratteggi e gesti di colore puro.

Nel 2022 espone alla Biennale di Venezia nel Padiglione Centrale.

Nel 2024 è presente alla mostra "Electric Dreams" alla TATE Modern di Londra.

Lucia Di Luciano was born in Syracuse in 1933. She arrived in Rome and attended the Academy of Fine Arts, where she met Giovanni Pizzo. The two were married in 1959. In 1963, together with Francesco Guerrieri and Lia Drei, they founded Gruppo 63 [Group 63], which gave itself a strongly rationalistic imprint in the sphere of kinetic-programmed research. This four-member association was short-lived due to programmatic divergences. As early as 1964, Lucia Di Luciano and Giovanni Pizzo gave birth to Operativo R [Operative R], with Carlo Carchietti, Franco Di Vito and Mario Rulli. The works produced in that period take their starting point from the analysis of visual processes of a gestalt matrix. In Lucia Di Luciano's works, an effect of overlapping black and white grids often occurs, which gives an evident multidimensionality to the image. There was then a return to colour, with the gradual introduction of primary tones. This is not a betrayal of the original propositions, but a deepening of an investigation into optical perception, which Di Luciano puts into practice, for example, in the series of the Gradients, works rich in imaginative verve combined with scientific rigor. In the recent Minimal and Senza titolo [Untitled] series, Di Luciano frees the sign from the rigorous grid of the 1960s to make room for tracings and gestures of pure colour.
