GALLERIA 10 A.M. ART
FROM 14 JANUARY TO 4 MARCH 2017
“LUIGI VERONESI. LUCE, FORMA, COSTRUZIONE. LE SPERIMENTAZIONI ARTISTICHE NEGLI ANNI '30 E '40” curated by Paolo Bolpagni

10 A.M. ART is opening the new year with an exhibition devoted to the art of the 1930s and 1940s by Luigi Veronesi, an internationally renowned artist considered to be one of the major protagonists of Italian abstraction. On show will be some thirty paintings and photographs selected in order to highlight Veronesi's creative thinking, which was aimed at an inexhaustible search for forms and which made a masterly use of materials and media. In the 1930s Luigi Veronesi's work showed an integral and pragmatic Constructivism, one he evolved after his discovery of Laszlo Moholy-Nagy and Josef Albers, exponents of the Bauhaus, Max Bill, a reference point for Swiss Concrete Art, the Dutch “De Stijl” group and of the Parisian "Abstraction-Création" group which he joined in 1934. The exhibition will highlight the artist's inquiries into methods derived from Constructivist/Bauhaus ideas, which he enriched with his personal analysis into the possibilities of a rhythmic development of forms through compositions that reveal an internal dynamism, a dynamism almost self-generated by the forms themselves. This principle conferred on Luigi Veronesi's work a concrete phenomenal temporality that, above all in the photos, anticipated cinematic developments and even Op Art. The exhibition will be completed by a catalogue in Italian and English, published by 10 A.M. ART, in which are to be found critical essays by Paolo Bolpagni and, besides the works on show, a further nucleus of works from important private and public collections.
